

new senior associates

The firm is pleased to announce the elevation of Ms. Prasana Selvam, Ms. Ashleigh Heng and Ms. Ong Kai Rou as Senior Associates of the firm with effect from 1 February 2022.

Prasana Selvam

Senior Associate
Property & Banking Department

Prasana obtained a Bachelor of Laws (Hons) degree from Multimedia University in 2011. She chambered with the firm of F.L. Foo & Co., where she mainly handled conveyancing and banking matters, and was admitted to the Malaysian Bar in August 2012. She later joined the conveyancing department of David Lingam & Co. in November 2012, where she handled a portfolio of property and banking matters.

Prasana joined Mah-Kamariyah & Philip Koh (MKP) in September 2019 and has been handling a broad range of banking and real estate matters since having joined the firm, including corporate and commercial banking matters, retail banking, corporate real estate matters, joint ventures and projects and tenancies.

Ong Kai Rou

Senior Associate
Litigation & Dispute Resolution Department

Kai Rou graduated with a Bachelor of Laws (Hons) degree in 2014 from the University of West of England, United Kingdom and obtained the Certificate of Legal Practice (CLP) in 2015. She chambered with MKP and was called to the Malaysian Bar in November 2016.

Kai Rou has been a member of the Litigation & Dispute Resolution Department of the firm since the beginning of her legal career. During her time in legal practice, she has been primarily involved in handling matters in the areas of contractual and commercial disputes, debt recovery matters, banking, arbitration and appellate litigation. She has also handled restructuring matters involving capital reductions as well as property and real estate litigation dispute matters.

Kai Rou's experience extends to all levels of the Malaysian Court hierarchy. She has appeared in the Court of Appeal and assisted senior counsels in Federal Court matters.

Ashleigh Heng

Senior Associate

Corporate and M&A Department

Ashleigh graduated from the University of London with a Bachelor of Laws (Hons.) degree in 2013. She chambered with Liow & Co and was called to the Malaysian Bar in August 2015.

She began her career with Lee Hishammuddin Allen & Gledhill in September 2015 (handling banking litigation and insolvency matters). Thereafter, she served as an Associate with David Lai & Tan from 2016 to 2018, handling corporate finance and commercial matters. She subsequently worked with KPMG Malaysia (Governance & Sustainability Department), where she advised on corporate governance and corporate compliance matters from June 2018 until she joined MKP in July 2019.

Since joining MKP, Ashleigh's work portfolio has comprised primarily of capital markets matters (in particular, initial public offerings and share issues) and mergers & acquisitions transactions as well as general corporate and commercial advisory matters, including corporate and securities regulation and corporate governance advisory matters.

The promotion of each of these Associates of the firm to the position of Senior Associate is encouraging, as an associate has been promoted from the working teams of each of our firm's core departments.

The firm warmly congratulates Prasana, Kai Rou and Ashleigh on their well-deserved promotions, which represent the natural next step in their careers, and we look forward to their continued contributions to the firm and its client services.

With the addition of these new Senior Associates, the firm has a core team of 9 Senior Associates amongst the firm's 40 lawyers.
